FOR PROJECT STUDIOS, REHEARSALS AND TRACKING

AKG K92 over-ear, closed-back headphones provide the accuracy you need for professional monitoring, recording and rehearsing. Powerful 40mm drivers deliver precise sound without hype or coloration, so you can hear every detail: Tight, defined bass. Well-articulated mids. And clear, pure highs. The unique self-adjusting headband and ultra-comfortable earpads ensure a personalized fit, so you can immerse yourself in your music for hours. Complete with a durable design and high-quality components - including replaceable earpads - your K92 headphones will go the distance with you.
