DN-700H
Network Audio Player

The 500 / 700 series

The new face of installation audio and video from Denon Professional

The DN-700H Network Audio Player from Denon Professional ushers in the new wave of "combo-deck" type playback devices. Taking full advantage of what internet media offers, the DN-700H can connect to and playback a myriad of online media as well as local AM/FM broadcasts and even access your own digital media through DLNA streaming, Apple AirPlay® or the front-panel mounted USB port.

Apple's revolutionary AirPlay technology allows you to experience your iTunes library through the DN-700H via your PC, MAC, or mobile device. AirPlay does more than just stream your music to the 700H. It streams information about your music, too. Song titles, artists, album names, elapsed and remaining time, all appear on the front panel display.

DN-500AV
Surround Sound Pre-amplifier
with Balanced XLR Outputs

Faithfully reproducing the high-quality audio of today's HD content is essential in any professional AV installation, and adapting unbalanced RCA preamp outputs from ill-purposed consumer decoders is completely unacceptable. The new Denon Professional DN-500AV pre-amplifier provides contractors, consultants, and system integrators with the most affordable and professional option to providing high-quality, channel-separated balanced audio outputs – complete with easy-to-use, controllable source switching.
