LP AMERICANA SERIES KEVIN RICARD CAJON

Perhaps no artist in the world has done more to popularize the cajon. Kevin Ricard and his many television appearances on the The Tonight Show with Jay Leno and American Idol have placed Kevin and his cajon front and center in front of millions of viewers.

Kevin's new signature cajon, part of the Americana Series, is built in the USA in the classic Spanish tradition, but this ingenious cajon is designed with individually tunable strings, allowing the player to literally "dial in" precise sound for unmatched response and performance.
