- When transporting the unit between cold and warm conditions always allow the unit to acclimatise for at least two hours before connecting to the mains.
- Do not obstruct the ventilation slots in any way with filters, diffusing materials, etc.
- Do not place any form of material over or close to the glass dome, modelling lamp or flash tube.

Radio Frequency - This equipment makes use of the radio spectrum for triggering and remote control and therefore receives and emits radio frequency energy. Ensure that all specifications within this document are followed, especially those concerning operating temperature and supply voltage range. Make sure that the unit is operated according to local regulations. The frequency spectrum that this unit uses is shared with other users so interference either with this unit or with other users is possible.

Photocell

The XMT500 features a built-in light sensitive photocell for flash synchronisation. The XMT500 Photocell can be set to fire on the first or second flash detected.

To set up and use the Photocell to trigger the XMT500:

1. First select either S1 (1st flash) or S2 (2nd flash) Photocell option within the Advanced Menu.
2. Press the SYNC button until the Photocell symbol is displayed on the LCD screen.

High-Speed Sync

High-Speed Sync allows the flash to sync with shutter speeds up to 1/8000th sec. To set up and use High-Speed Sync:

1. Press and hold the HSS button to turn on High-Speed Sync.
2. Adjust the shutter speed on your camera.
3. To turn off High-Speed Sync press and hold the HSS button.

Further information:

- If the shutter speed on your camera is set to it's X-Sync or slower High-Speed Sync will not work.
- High-Speed Sync will not work in Strobe mode

Wired Sync

3.5mm PC Sync

The XMT can be triggered via a standard 3.5mm PC sync lead. Wired sync is always on.

Flash Modes

The XMT has three different flash modes including Flash, Strobe, and TTL. To select one of the three flash modes press the MODE button on the rear panel of the XMT.

Flash

To set up and use Flash mode:

1. Press the MODE button on the rear panel until FLS is displayed on the LCD screen.
2. Turn the Rotary Control Dial to adjust the flash power to the desired level.
3. Press the Rotary Control Dial to set and confirm the desired flash power.

Strobe

In Strobe mode the XMT can rapidly fire a predetermined number of flashes at set time intervals. This feature can be used to capture multiple images of a single event on one exposure.

To set up and use Strobe mode:

1. Press the MODE button on the rear panel until STR is displayed on the LCD screen.
2. Turn the Rotary Control Dial to adjust the flash power to the desired level.
3. Press the Rotary Control Dial to set and confirm the desired flash power.
4. To set the number of flashes and time interval press the Rotary Control Dial.
5. The time interval value (Hz) will then be highlighted and can be adjusted. Press the rotary dial to confirm desired time interval value and to select the number of flashes required.
6. Turn the Rotary Control Dial to adjust the number of flashes required.
7. Press the Rotary Control Dial to confirm the number of flashes.
8. When the unit is fired it will 'strobe' with the set number of flashes at the set time interval.

Calculating your shutter speed when using Strobe mode - When in Strobe mode, your cameras shutter will need to remain open long enough to capture all of the flashes. The formula below will help you calculate the required shutter speed.

Number of flashes / Flash frequency = Shutter speed

Example: number of flashes @ 20 / flash frequency @ 5 (Hz), then the shutter speed = 4 seconds.

Further information:

- In Strobe mode only $\frac{1}{4}$ flash power or lower can be selected. Full or $\frac{1}{2}$ power cannot be selected.
- To prevent overheating and component deterioration, do not use Strobe mode repetitively in excess of 10 times. If Strobe mode is used in excess of 10 bursts the XMT may automatically disable all flash modes to allow the components to cool down. If all flash modes are disabled due to excessive Strobe bursts allow at least 15-20 minutes for the unit to cool sufficiently.

Maximum Flashes in Strobe mode:

Flash Output	Hz	1	2	3	4	5	6-7	8-9	10	11	12-14	15-19	10-50	60-100
1/4		7	6	5	4	4	3	3	2	2	2	2	2	2
1/8		14	14	12	10	8	6	5	4	4	4	4	4	4
1/16		30	30	30	20	20	20	10	8	8	8	8	8	8
1/32		60	60	60	50	50	40	30	20	20	20	18	16	12
1/64		90	90	90	80	80	70	60	50	40	40	35	30	20
1/128		100	100	100	100	100	90	80	70	70	60	50	40	40
1/256		100	100	100	100	100	90	80	70	70	60	50	40	40

TTL

In TTL mode the camera determines the flash output by metering light levels through the lens. To enter TTL mode press the MODE button until TTL is displayed on the LCD screen.

TTL Flash Exposure Compensation

Flash Exposure Compensation allows you to make adjustments to the flash power level as determined by the camera in TTL mode. The flash output can be adjusted by ± 3 f-stops in $1/3$ -stop increments.

To adjust the Flash Exposure Compensation in TTL mode:

1. Press the Rotary Control Dial to select Flash Exposure Compensation.
2. Turn the Rotary Control Dial to adjust the compensation level.
3. Press the Rotary Control Dial to set the desired compensation level.

Further information:

- In TTL mode XMT units can be divided into a maximum of three groups.
- Flash ratios of XMT units in different groups can be adjusted (up to a max of 3 groups).
- In TTL mode different flash modes can be used on different groups.

Modelling Lamp

The XMT500 uses a 10W LED modelling lamp. Modelling output can be adjusted in four steps including Off, 30%, 60%, and 100%.

To use the modelling lamp:

1. Press the LAMP button to scroll through the modelling output options.

Overheat Prevention

To prevent the unit from overheating, the XMT includes internal temperature sensors that will automatically enable the overheat function after excessive use. To prevent the overheat function from enabling, do not fire the unit at full power more than 100 times in quick succession.

If the temperature sensors enable the overheat function the XMT will automatically reduce flash recycle to over 10 seconds. If this occurs allow the unit rest and cool for at least 10 minutes before commencing use.

Error Codes

In case of failure the following is a list of unit error codes:

ERROR CODE	DESCRIPTION	SOLUTION
E1	Recycling error.	Restart the unit. If problem persists send to Bowens for servicing.
E2	Excessive heat.	Allow the unit to rest for at least 10 minutes.
E3	Flashtube error.	Restart the unit. If problem persists send to Bowens for servicing.
E4	Software error.	Update to latest firmware.

Firmware Updates

The XMT firmware may be updated via the micro USB connector.
