UC-B30-T shown

- 24/7 live remote support with a dedicated Crestron Flex team
- Optional cloud connection support for faster issue resolution
- Five year warranty for Crestron branded components of the covered Crestron Flex product
- On-site support discount
- Rapid advance replacement
- Annually renewing subscription service

Crestron Flex Care is a subscription service¹ that automatically renews annually to provide 24/7 live remote technical support, an extended five year warranty on Crestron® hardware,² expedited advance replacements, and a discounted rate for on-site support.³ Crestron Flex Care renews at the same flat annual rate to provide coverage for up to five years from the purchase date of a Crestron Flex conference system.

Select the UC-FLEXCARE plan when purchasing an M, MM, B, or R-series conference system.

24/7 Live Support with Optional Cloud Connection

Crestron Flex Care guarantees 24/7, year-round live remote support with a dedicated Crestron Flex support team. For a more streamlined support experience, opt in to the Crestron Flex Care cloud connection service at no additional charge to allow a support technician to access the room virtually within minutes.

Five Year Crestron Hardware Warranty

While subscribed to Crestron Flex Care, the standard Crestron warranty extends to five years from the purchase date for any Crestron branded hardware included in a Crestron Flex conference system.²

Rapid Advance Replacement

If a replacement device is needed during the warranty period, Crestron will issue an advance replacement unit before the defective unit is sent back to ensure minimal downtime.²

Discounted On-site Support

If on-site support is needed, Crestron Flex Care holders are offered a discounted, all-inclusive daily rate without any hidden fees or added costs for travel and expenses.³
